BELOVED PIONEER LADY, AUNT BELLE M'CUISTON, IS DEAD

92 Years Old, Was Very Active;
Generous to and Popular With Poor

PASSED TUESDAY; SAW
FIVE GENERATIONS

One of Calloway county's oldest and most beloved ladies passed away Tuesday when death came to "Aunt Belle" McCuiston, 92 years of age, at her home near New Concord following a 10 days illness of intestinal influenza. This passes from this county one of its most admirable as well as oldest persons; one of the few remaining civil war widows and a lovable woman who has wielded a tremendous influence for good over her community.

Mrs. McCuiston, known affectionately as "Aunt Belle" by practically every one who knew her, was born Isabelle Virginia Jackson whose parents came here from Middle Tennessee. She was a descendant of General Andrew Jackson, president of the United States from 1829-1837. She was born and reared in Calloway county and lived in the same neighborhood all her life.

"Aunt Belle" was the widow of M. L. McCuiston, a distinguished Confederate veteran who passed on in 1912. To them were born three sons and four daughters, of whom three are still living, C. V. and T. M. McCuiston and Mrs. Ella Hamlin. Those who have passed on are W. C. and three daughters, Ada, May and Cora. Mrs. McCuiston was one of the few persons given to see five generations of her own family. Surviving are 28 grand-children, 20 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, little Miss Dorothy Ann Herndon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Herndon. "Aunt Belle" was a faithful and devoted member of the Sulphur Springs Methodist church and lived an ideal Christian life. She was very considerate, thoughtful and generous of the poor and unfortunate and all who were in trouble of any kind.

Despite the harsh cold the New Concord auditorium was filled to capacity with sorrowing friends and neighbors, who joined the family, in paying the last tributes of respect at the funeral services Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The rites were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. L. Z. Hurley. Burial was in the New Concord cemetery.

The flower girls were grandchildren, Fannie Ellen McCuiston, Robbie McCuiston, Hilda McCuiston, and Fay Smith. The pallbearers were Raymond and Roy Hamlin, Luther McCuiston, Johnnie McCuiston, Freeman McCuiston and Pat McCuiston, grandsons.

Tennessee Valley Act Is Upheld By Supreme Court; Vital Decision

PROSPECTS FOR AURORA GLOWING AS T.V.A. UPHELD

Lower Valley Assn. Gets Encouraging Messages from McKellar, Logan

MAY SEND ANOTHER
GROUP TO CAPITAL

The Supreme Court decision declaring the TVA constitutionally means West Kentucky will have the long sought $30,000,000 power and navigation dam on the lower Tennessee river in the near future, officials of the Lower Tennessee Valley Association averred Monday night.

The only remaining step, officials said, is an appropriation by the present Congress enabling the TVA to commence work on the dam this spring.

In a telegram received Monday by L. J. Horton, secretary of the LTVVA, Senator Kenneth McKellar, (D-Tenn.) declared:

"Upholding the TVA does help the chances for the Aurora Dam very much."

Similar messages were received from Senator M. M. Logan and Congressman Voris Gregory of Kentucky. Senator Barkley had not been heard from, although he has been active in the project.

The Lower Tennessee Valley Association was organized two years ago to include 40 counties in West Kentucky, West Tennessee, and Southern Illinois for the purpose of promoting the construction of Aurora Dam on the Tennessee river.

Last spring, the association presented a petition signed by 40,000 residents of the Tri-State area to the officials at Washington, and as a result, the TVA was instructed to conduct preliminary investigations in the lower valley for a possible location for the dam.

Dr. A. E. Morgan, Knoxville, TVA head, declared recently that his engineers believe they have found "an excellent site" for the dam and indicated that a public announcement would be forthcoming.

The high court's decision wiped out the major stumbling block in the way of the Aurora Dam project—the suit of the Alabama Power Company seeking to prevent the TVA from developing and distributing power from its dams.

If necessary, LTVVA officials asserted Monday night, they will send another delegation to Washington this spring to work for an appropriation from Congress.

Business Club Keeps After Dam

The Young Business Men's Club voted to continue their efforts toward securing the construction of the Aurora Dam with renewed interest following the TVA decision on Monday. A discussion of the decision was held Monday night by L. J. Horton, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and the club voted to wire Senators Logan, McKellar, Barkley and Congressman Gregory asking their renewed efforts.

Another project in which the club is interested, the securing of a limestone rock crusher for Calloway county to make available limestone at a minimum cost. It was reported that Calloway would use 4,000 tons and Graves county 2,000 tons. The State through Commissioner of Agriculture Garth K. Ferguson, has promised the use of the crusher and labor, in part at least, has been secured through Camp Murray CCC Camp. The committee composed of H. T. Waldrop, L. J. Horton and Raymond Hamlin reported that the rock could be secured for 5 cents a ton.

The club is also assisting in the move to revive the Boy Scout movement. The club's committee composed of Carman Graham, A. B. Austin, and Dr. H. Calvin Smith will meet with the committee from the Rotary next Monday night to formulate plans. The Rotary committee is composed of Vernon Stubbfield Sr., Dr. Hugh McElrath, and Dr. O. C. Wells Sr.

A committee was appointed to meet with the Rotary on Thursday, today, and assist in entertaining the legislative committee which will be here inspecting the Murray College properties. They are: A. B. Austin, Raymond Hamlin, Joe T. Lovett, Waylon Rayburn, and H. T. Waldrop.

Two Hopkins county communities have selected dairy herd improvement as their main project.

TVA Decision in Brief

An opinion by Chief Justice Hughes, from which Justice McReynolds alone dissented, held: The power to build dams for constitutional purposes. It may sell electricity generated by such dams. It may take steps to carry that electricity to a market.

Constitutionality of the vast TVA project as a whole was not interpreted. The court limited its ruling to the above-mentioned issues.

New Dealers hailed the decision. Citizens of Florence, Ala., danced in the streets. Power interests declined immediate comment. Stock market traders guessed wrong, with utility prices dropping after an initial rise in a 4,900,000-share day.

JUSTICE HUGHES READS OPINION DECIDED 8 TO 1

TVA Heads Are Jubilant
Over Smashing Victory for the "New Deal"

HEADQUARTERS SCENE OF BIG CELEBRATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The United States Supreme Court, in an eight-to-one decision, today held constitutional the main principles of the Tennessee Valley Authority, upon which President Roosevelt based his program to provide cheaper electricity.

The decision rested on the right of congress to improve navigation in the interest of commerce and national defense; and not on the more far-reaching humanitarian objectives repeatedly associated with T.V.A. by Mr. Roosevelt. The sharply-challenged right of the Government to dispose of all surplus power developed at Wilson Dam, on the Tennessee River incidentally to other T.V.A. activities, was upheld.

It was a smashing victory for the New Deal at the hands of the Nation's highest tribunal which decreed the death of A.A.A. and N.R.A. The ruling of said, in effect, that if Mr. Roosevelt's power program is developed along the lines of T.V.A., it is well within constitutional limitations.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 17.—The winding Tennessee Valley, where leaders hope for creation of an American Ruhr with industry and agriculture coordinated, hailed with noisy celebrations and expressions of delight the Supreme Court support of the TVA, today. Here in Knoxville headquarters of the Tennessee Valley Authority, factories and mills raised their whistles in a mighty din. The high school band played in the downtown streets and thousands of citizens joined in the celebration with cheers.

The 1,200 Knoxville office employees of the TVA, under tension for weeks over continuation of their jobs, were jubilant.

In Washington, Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, chairman of the TVA, said "I have nothing to say except that I don't feel depressed."

David E. Lillenthal, power director of the TVA, suiting action to words, said, "You say that Mr. Lillenthal, with a broad smile on his face, said he had no comment to make" pending study of the complete opinion.

The Muscle Shoals district, hub of the Tennessee river power development, broke into a bedlam of happy celebration with word that the Authority's right to sell "surplus power" had been upheld.

Hats were tossed into the air, cheers were flung back and forth between residents, and money changed hands on wagers on the decision.

Civil leaders and officials throughout the district greeted the announcement as an important step in future development.

Governor Hill McAlister of Tennessee commented briefly, "As Governor I am very gratified at the decision since it means so much to Tennessee."

Governor Bibb Graves, Alabama said "It was a great victory for the government" and added that it would enable America to compete more successfully in world markets through improved water facilities.

The 7,700 inhabitants of Norris, the TVA's model town, site of one of the new dams, fully laid plans for a celebration and dance at the community building tonight.

Mercury Drops to 12 Below in City

Monday night was the coldest of the winter, the severest since 1929-30, with the thermometer taking a dive to 12 below zero sometime during Monday night. The reading was official on the government tube here while several others registered 14 below on unofficial readings.

This is the record in Murray since the 16 below in January, 1930, when Murray had the dubious honor of being the coldest spot in the United States for a day.

A two-inch snow, which was much drifted by high winds Monday night, made the going exceedingly dangerous for cars and pedestrians Tuesday.

CAMP MURRAY CHATTERS

By Earl Chambers

The Greyhounds added another to an almost continuous string of victories last Thursday evening when they decisively defeated the net team of Mayfield's Company 3559 on the Murray High School court. Company 1517's five took an early lead meeting several of their former teammates on the opposite side of the ring and the new camp's team was unable to hold the Murrayites who have better than a dozen games to their credit.

The meet with Columbus which was scheduled for last Saturday evening was postponed and the Greyhounds are working overtime getting ready to meet Paducah at Reidsland this coming Saturday evening.

The past week has been one of inspections. Colonel Hunt, Corps Area Inspector General, made the first one and the list grew as the days have passed. Colonel Palmer, commander of Fort Knox, and Major Everts followed. Major Lisanby, Capt. Herd and Chaplain Jones included Camp Murray in their itinerary for the week. Mr. Huff, Mr. Richie, Mr. Ricker and

Mr. and Mrs. Bird Newsome representing the various technical services from Washington, Zanesville, Ohio and Paducah were also official visitors recently.

PADUCAH RESIDENT SERIOUSLY HURT

T. W. Johnson, Revenue Agent, in Serious Condition After Car Wreck; at Clinic.

T. W. Johnson, of the U. S. Internal Revenue of Alcoholic tax, is in a critical condition at the Key-Houston Clinic following a car accident of last night on the North Highway. The car he was driving and one driven by Conn Moore, accompanied by Max Hurt, side-swiped and Johnson went into a ditch about 100 yards farther.

Johnson received numerous scalp wounds from glass, a crushed nose and chest with broken ribs. Dr. Houston stated that a complete examination had not been made due to his condition but that his condition was quite critical. He showed nice improvement during the night.

Johnson was unable to be identified when brought to the Clinic and Sheriff Kingins was unable to identify him although he had talked to him during the day, until he noticed his gun which brought the agent to his mind.

Moore and Hurt were returning from a W.O.W. meeting in Paducah and the accident occurred about 10:30 at the grade and curve at the Utterback schoolhouse. Hurt stated that Johnson was evidently driving at a good rate of speed and did not take into consideration the curvature of the road. Only slight damages were done to Moore's car and it was only by chance that they saw Johnson's car in the ditch farther on. They thought at first that probably the other driver continued.

The TVA Decision

The Supreme Court's decision on the Tennessee Valley Authority, happily made in Washington Monday after a nerve-racking delay received in this section with unmixed joy. Though it clears the way for Aurora Dam it by no means assures it and much work remains to be done to get this great benefit for this section of our country.

It is no secret that Doctor A. E. Morgan, head of the Authority, has been in no hurry to get Aurora Dam under actual construction. However, now that all legal difficulties are out of the way, it is proper, we think, to assume that Doctor Morgan will be more heartily in favor of pushing the project to the limit. At least that is our fervent hope here.

Aurora dam has one enthusiastic and powerful friend in Washington in the person of Senator McKellar of Tennessee. We say frankly that we believe had Mr. Barkley and Mr. Logan been half as diligent and resourceful in the interest of Aurora Dam as Senator McKellar that this great undertaking would now be actually under way.

The Supreme Court's decision alone will not move a single yard of dirt, or pour a single foot of concrete at Aurora Dam. No further step can be made until funds are appropriated for the project. To get the money is the job of Senators McKellar, Barkley and Logan and Congressman Gregory.

national concern for over a century. Recommendation that provision be made for navigation around Muscle Shoals was made by the Secretary of War John C. Calhoun, in his report transmitted to the Congress by President Monroe in 1824, and from 1852 the Congress has repeatedly authorized projects to develop navigation on that and other portions of the river, both by open improvements and by canalization. The Wilson Dam project, adopted in 1918, gave a nine-foot slack water development, for 15 miles above Florence, over the Muscle Shoals rapids and, as the district court found, "flooded out the then existing canal and locks which were inadequate." The district court also found that a "high dam of this type was the only feasible means of eliminating this most serious obstruction to navigation." By the act of 1930, after a protracted study of the corps of engineers of the United States Army, the Congress adopted a project for a permanent improvement of the main stream "for a navigable depth of nine feet."

"While, in its present condition the Tennessee River is not adequately improved for commercial navigation, and traffic is small, we are not at liberty to conclude either that the river is not susceptible of development as an important waterway, or that Congress has not undertaken that development, or that the construction of the Wilson Dam was not an appropriate means to accomplish a legitimate end."

"The Wilson Dam and its power plant must be taken to have been constructed in the exercise of the constitutional functions of the federal government."—Paris Post-Intelligencer.

JUST JOTS

By Joe

One big cigarette company now advertises that its brand is good for indigestion and a competitor counters that its own make is good for "too much acid." A big ad schedule from either of them in country papers would go a long way toward easing our economic ills—and help 'em sell more cigarettes, too.

Remember that you never push yourself forward by putting yourself on the back.

And wherever the highway commissioner may go the district headquarters are sure to follow.

Postmaster Waldrop dropped a 2-line ad in last week's Ledger & Times offering for corn for sale. Before all the papers had been delivered to the postoffice, Mr. Waldrop had sold four barrels of corn from the ad.

Is it Knox or Knoeks who recently announced for the Republican nomination for Governor?

Former President Hoover avers that fear of the New Deal is holding back business recovery. Of course everyone was just bubbling over with confidence in 1932.

A good many Calloway people were disappointed in the failure of Representative Henry Ward's bill to free the toll bridges to get more encouragement in the General Assembly. It costs more, in bridge tolls, to go from Murray to Cadiz, seats of adjoining counties, and return than a similar motor trip between any two adjoining county seats in the United States of America. It is a pleasure to record that our own representative, Ben Grogan supported this measure vigorously.

Instead of shelling out the "Rubies" when you make a purchase in Kentucky you now save the "Heppies."

The Right Degree . . .
"of interest and sympathy in every case is an invaluable part of the service rendered by the modern, progressive funeral director."
But experience must have taught him just the right degree, lest he overdo these delicate qualities.

Seemingly, Bardtown has replaced Russellville as the unofficial capital of Kentucky.

Hell (Michigan) froze over during a recent cold spell.

We're willing to give the Republicans Al Smith as long as they don't want us to take Hoover in return for him.

When Governor Chandler selected James Hammond, Paintsville, Kentucky, commander of The American Legion, to be warden of the Frankfort penitentiary he made an excellent choice as has been announced since he was inaugurated. A young man of resourcefulness, energy, character and fearlessness Mr. Hammond is as well qualified for this important post as any man in the state of Kentucky. Convicts who will be satisfied with fair and just treatment will be better off under Mr. Hammond's administration. There will be no monkey-business around this prison with him in charge of it. Those who try any will doubtless regret it as long as they remain within its walls. We do not mean to infer that Mr. Hammond is a hard man. On the contrary, he is an amiable gentleman who is always willing to meet another a little more than half-way but he has a will of iron and will tolerate no infractions of the laws of order and discipline just as he condones no violations of the rules of justice and fair-play. Congratulations to Governor Chandler on his splendid selection.

The T. V. A. has been declared constitutional but it appears that it's going to take more than the honorable justices of the Supreme Court to get Mr. Morgan sold on the idea of building Aurora Dam.

Upton Sinclair has found that he is out of politics, but everyone else found it out a year ago last summer.

Lafayette cut Ben Johnson out of his job and last week Mr. Ben cut the ex-governor out of his lease.

That the power to tax is the power to destroy was never better illustrated than in the case of the railroads.

Expense of maintaining the Dionees is $1000 a month or $200 a month apiece. We presume they will move over into the U. S. A. so the Townsend plan can take care of them when they get to be 60.

Governor of North Carolina seems to be lukewarm on "Luge Lok."

John Young Brown has been conferring with Mr. Roosevelt on the Kentucky political situation. If the President wants to do well in Kentucky this fall he had better do his conferring with someone other than Mr. John Young Brown.

Gentlemen:

Campbell-Ewald Company celebrated its twenty-first birthday on Saturday, February 1, and I want to take this opportunity personally to express my appreciation of the fine spirit of cooperation that always has marked our relations with your paper, and that has helped to no small degree in the successful development of our business.

We are, as you well know, firm believers in newspaper advertising. Other media are important, but the newspaper is the final vital link between the producer and the consumer that must be, in the very nature of things, an essential part of any well balanced advertising program.

It has been a great source of gratification to me all through my business experience to note the friendliness and courtesy that we have received invariably from publishers in the newspaper field, and it is because of this that I am impelled to write to you this expression of appreciation now that we have been doing business together for a quarter of a century or so.

You will be interested to know that our business for last year was the best we have had since 1931, and that I have every confidence of still sounder and better conditions in the coming year.

Sincerely,
H. T. Ewald, President

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Arnett of Caldwell attended the funeral services of Mrs. M. V. Gower of Hazel Saturday—great grandmother of Mrs. Arnett's.

Roads and highways have been awful simple, but now they are simply awful! Mud, yes mud! People's horses look like the hind wheels of bad luck. Men are not allowed to come into the house. Women have all turned "Battle Ax."

Bee Cochran, livestock dealer, is the most useful fellow there is. He makes from one to five trips to Hazel each week with his motor truck, and has been employed to haul multiplied thousands of pounds of tobacco to town, besides he is quick as a minute hand on a Waterbury wptch.

Yes, "Scatter-Brain," ole "Eagle" fell through the ice, and I'm glad that you was sorry.

George Cathey, our mill-man, slipped and fell the dog-gonest fall on earth, from the looks of his clothes he must have rolled to the foot of the hill.

Next Saturday will be Washington's birthday. No mail, nor nothin'. I wonder why they (?) don't celebrate when he and a bunch of soldiers crossed the Delaware river on a raft of logs?

Charley Cloys and Elmer Gauthrie found a live snake encased in a block of ice. That is the serpent punishment for foolin' ole "Miss Eve." Then she whaled away and foaled "Daddy" Adam.

A bunch of gypsy religious fanatics at Chickasaw, Okla., told a woman to get her $5,000 out of the bank and that they would pray a blessing on it, thereby increasing value 50 per cent, besides she could "call up" her dead husband. The gypsies got her money and shed-died. The Lord told Emma Goldman to have Cholgosh to assassinate President McKinley. Direct operation of spirit (?) don't yer know.

Sorry Bob Parker had to report that the peach crop has been almost frozen to death. By the way, all the "Bobs" prefer that you say "Robert." First day of school teacher said to Sam, "What is your name?" He said "Samuel." Then she said to Bob what is your name? then Bob said "Bobuel." Then the teacher fainting dead as a mackerel—all—"Eagle".

Posters, maps and scrapbooks are making the reading project interesting to Graves county homemakers.

The Round Pond homemakers' club in Simpson county raised $47 towards buying a piano for the school.

Across the River

I got on the honor roll once by sending a stale letter in a week ahead of time so will try again.

Hope we'll be enjoying Florida sunshine by the time this is printed, but just now the days are certainly dark and dreary and rains are getting mucky everywhere.

And speaking of roads, if Mr. Chandler reads this (of course he does) I hope he decides to arrange for a pike from the Pine Bluff road through by McCusick School House to the Concord highway.

Short seems the most accommodating people in the world in that section; they will even shine your shoes and push you out of mud holes and give you their garbage, when you can't get further, but I'm afraid their patience will become exhausted some of these days, so then's when we're going to need gravel.

Mrs. Virgie Lovins, Mrs. Otis Lovins and children and Mrs. Lin Spiceland visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave McClure Saturday, and even in the new home near Murray they still have the old hospitality.

We spent the rest of the week end at "Uncle Sam's". A person can't have too many uncles and aunts and cousins this kind of weather. They're handy, but I'm awfully unworthy of my friends.

There's still quite a bit of sickness around. We hear that Bro. Nelson has pneumonia, but we certainly hope he's better by now.

Dr. Boatwright near Linton, died last week. Everybody here to hear of doctors dying now.

Mrs. Christine Dawson visited her mother the first part of last week, when she and Mrs. Spiceland visited Mrs. Birdie Cathey for a few days.

I visited Poplar Spring School Tuesday. The hot lunches they're serving to the children there give us something new to talk about.

Mrs. Bobbie Whitford resigned at Tip Top School to go with her husband to Springfield, Mrs. Emma D. Riggins fills the vacancy.

Linus Spiceland boasts that bad weather can't discourage his pupils. Forty-two is a pretty good attendance record for last week.

We visited our Calloway folks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cunningham in their new home at the locks at Dover a few Saturdays past. They seem to be sitting on top of the world. Well, I'll get out in the sleet and see if my old hen has hatched. If so, I know the baby chicks will look around and say "Boo hoo. I wish I'd never come out of the shell." So goodbye, Charlie, and my readers till next time.—The Chatterbox.

KIRKSEY WINS COUNTY NET TOURNAMENT; WILDCATS IN FINALS

The Kirksey Eagles won the Calloway county net tournament here last week end to duplicate their feat of last year when they won the district tournament which was then composed of only Calloway teams. Lynn Grove went to the finals and held the Eagles to a close game.

Coach Jeffrey took the consolation with his second team winning from the Eagles by the long score of 42-15 in the finals also played Saturday night. The including of the second teams this year was the first time and it added much to the interest in the tournament and as a result favorable crowds attended most sessions.

The result of the tournament in order of games played:

Lynn Grove, 40, Almo, 9, second

Kirksey, 27, Lynn Grove, 21, first

The all county net five chosen after the tournament included

Copeland and Washer, Kirksey, H.

Cochran, Lynn Grove, L. Bucy and

Young, New Concord. The five were easily the outstanding five of the tournament play and of these

Washer led the field with a wide margin in the number of points made. He was cool and consistent and with his height easily got tips

at center.

Marvin Weather, county school superintendent presented the trophies

to the winner and runners-up following the finals.

Stanley Endorses Efforts to Aid Farmers in Senate Announcement

Co-existent with our national life, Democracy has endured through peace and war, adversity and prosperity, victory and defeat; while other political organizations born of the ephemeral exigencies of an hour have, after a brief period of dominance, passed one after another into oblivion.

I am convinced that my political faith has outlasted the century because of the verity of its principles and that they like all great general principles, while immutable are not rigid or static, and are perfectly adaptable to the expansion of an empire and the changing needs of the times.

During the whole of my official life, I have regarded the maintenance of the fundamental principles of my party as no less binding upon the conduct of a public servant than his oath of office.

After the lapse of the years, it is most gratifying to find many friends who once advised me to that which seemed expedient rather than that which I believed to be right, now commending my constant adherence to principles admittedly democratic, without regard to personal aggrandizement or to my political fate, now felicitating me upon the fact that my party in National Convention assembled and my great and honored receive the commendation of their countrymen.

I am convinced that much of the commendation of these attempts to secure immediate relief for our agricultural interests is due to a failure of the Administration's critics to envisage the whole picture.

As aptly stated by Secretary Wallace in a recent and able address—

"We do not claim that the action taken under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, or the National Recovery Act, or any other of the emergency acts, helpful as they may have been temporarily, constitute a fundamental plan for American Agriculture."

"We must engage in the delicate process of adjusting basic production downward, until our people have the vision to adopt a long-range world trading policy which is in keeping with our position as creditors."

To the same beneficent end, one of the greatest Secretaries of State of any administration or any time—Cordell Hull—has devoted his splendid talents and tireless energies.

No court has questioned the constitutionality of this program and no true democrat will fail to endorse it.

This great work requires something more than a simple acquiescence on the part of Congress, it demands affirmative, efficient and courageous cooperation.

Having given more than twenty years of my life to the study of such problems and to the enactment of measures which have proven of practical benefit to our agricultural interests, I am persuaded that at this time the field of my greatest usefulness lies in a return to the duties of a legislator.

Congress should lend effective aid to the President and his accomplished Secretaries of State and Agriculture by breaking down these trade barriers that are barking the world, and in restoring those trade relationships which have been sedulously fostered by every democratic administration from Jefferson to Roosevelt, and which have insured the prosperity not of agriculture alone but of all other activities directly or indirectly affected by it.

If elected to the Senate, I shall earnestly endeavor to maintain the principles and render loyal support to the leaders of my party. My record as a public servant in the past is the earnest of my conduct in the future.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

No More Tobacco Tax

The Kerr-Smith act is dead and there is no restriction on the sale of tobacco.

Farmers that were under the AAA contract are urged to continue the use of the allotment card. This should be turned in at the office when the crop is sold. This is the only way for the Tobacco Section to continue payment of the '35 contract. The warrant writers are still on the market and will be glad to record your sales. The county agent is unable to put the sales of tobacco on the allotment card. Burgess Parker Jr. and Wells Purdon are representatives of the Tobacco Section and are the only ones that are qualified in this county.

Seed Corn—Good And Bad

Some time ago the county agent wrote 200 letters to farmers for samples of seed corn to test. 30 responded. He needed 100 samples to send in at a time. Today he received word that we could not get any more tested because the experiment station test has been made. Thirty-two counties sent in samples and the test shows a wide variation of germination. One county tested 100 per cent while the lowest tested only 46 per cent. Therefore, it would be worth while to test seed corn for 1936. The County Agent wishes to thank those who brought samples in and he is sorry that he is unable to get this test made.

"Audioscopes" Introduces Third Dimension Films in Sound

Excitement is high today among the technicians of Hollywood over what might be the next big turning-point in motion pictures. It is the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer short subject, "Audioscopes", coming Sunday and Monday to the Capitol theatre.

The short combines sound, color and the third dimension. Players seem to literally step from the screen and approach the audience. In many cases players appear actually to hold objects a few inches from the spectator's face.

Some of the exciting details that will be shown are: A girl swings out over the audience. A magician produces a mouse on the end of his wand and hands it to any one wishing it. A girl blows up a balloon which seemingly bursts but a few inches away. These and many more amazing things happen during the showing of the picture.

Pete Smith, handles the uproarious dialogue.

Will Get New Chance in Life

This youngster, whose home is typical of hundreds on areas being taken over by the Resettlement Administration in this region, is being given a new chance in life by Uncle Sam. Her father's farm is of a submarginal type incapable of being farmed profitably and is part of an area which Resettlement is converting into a park and forest.

Resettlement has taken over many thousands of acres of such land in this state to be permanently retired from agriculture and put to uses for which the areas are better adapted. Families living on these purchase areas, such as represented by the above child, are being resettled on better farm lands where they will have new opportunities to acquire good homes and become permanently self-sustaining citizens.

Agricultural Engineer Inspects Murray Camp

RICHMOND NOTES MURRAY'S GROWTH

Prizes Not Team and States Belief in College Athletics.

Dr. James H. Richmond, Murray College president, declared to the students of the institution in assembly Monday, February 17, that no other college in the South has grown so rapidly and has been recognized so favorably as has Murray State. "I am delighted with the recognition which this school is getting throughout the nation," said Dr. Richmond.

Complimenting the basketball team on the excellent record it has made this season in SIAA competition, the Murray chief expressed the belief that the Thoroughbreds will win both the KMAC and SIAA tournaments to be played at Bowling Green, Ky., and Jackson, Miss., respectively. "I believe in college athletics," he stated, "in good teams, in order to be respected as athletes, players should be respected as students too. As long as I am president of this institution, and I hope that'll be for a long time—we'll have a good sound athletic department."

After he had read from the Bible in opening the chapel exercises, the president in brief comment said: "The biggest foot in the world is the one who says there is no God! The most stupid man is the one who has no faith. The greatest men were those who had simple, child-like faith." He used Washington, Lincoln, and Wilson as American examples, pointing out the fact that Wilson led his cabinet in prayer just prior to America's entrance into the war. "You don't have to be ashamed of the faith that is in you," he said.

The Bible is history, but more than that; philosophy, but more than that; poetry, but more than that. No greater philosophy, no greater history, and no nobler poetry was ever written. Academic freedom is essential to education, but no person has the right to take advantage of his professional status," he finished.

"We are here for a purpose, we have a destiny to realize, we are modeled in the image of God!"

Hold Trial For Tom Coleman

An examining trial was held for Tom Coleman Tuesday afternoon. Coleman was held for chicken stealing and more recently for jailbreaking. He was held to the grand jury under a $250 bond on the chicken stealing count and $500 on the jailbreaking charge.
